

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY      January 31, 2021

WELCOME

HYMN                      It Is Well      Violin - Sarah Coyl

Call to Worship: Psalm 111

Come, and praise God!
In the company of God's people,
let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
Great are the works of God,
full of glory and majesty.
Our God is gracious and compassionate;
our God is merciful and forgiving
our God is faithful and trustworthy,
our God is just and good.
So come, let us worship God together.
God's praise will last forever!

SCRIPTURE READING      Mark 1:21-28

SERMON

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

HOLY COMMUNION

HYMN                      When I Survey The Wondrous Cross
Violin - Sarah Coyl

BENEDICTION

Announcement: 2020 Annual Giving Statements have been mailed out. If you haven't received yours within a week or so please contact the church office. Thank you!

Family Corner

Read: Mark 1:21-28

Reflect: In this story, Jesus does something amazing. He heals someone! Jesus healed people a lot. It is one of the ways that Jesus helped people. I wonder how the man in this story felt after Jesus cast out the demons? How would you feel? How do you think the people in the synagogue felt when they saw Jesus do this? How would you respond?

By healing this man, Jesus showed just how incredible and powerful he is. Jesus changed this man's life! He also changed the lives of the people who witnessed what happened in the synagogue. They began to tell other people about the incredible things Jesus did. We see this happen a lot in stories from the Bible—people experience healing or another incredible thing, and then they turn around and tell others about what happened. We experience Jesus' power, too, and we should tell others about it!

Respond: Try acting out the story together. As you re-tell the story point out the amazing things that Jesus does in this story! Then, make a list of people who you can tell about Jesus' amazing actions.